

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

FANS SHOWS THEIR SUPPORT AT THE BOX OFFICE FOR CECE WINANS AND THE BELIEVE FOR IT TOUR

Photo Credit: Elijah Rodney/Cmon Creative

The Dove Awards Presents CeCe Winans with Another Five Nominations for Believe For It

(Los Angeles, CA) – CeCe Winans began her musical career at the impressionable age of 16 years old and her path has taken her around the world sharing the good news of the gospel in song. Along the way she has managed to rack up 15 Grammy Awards, 31 Grammy nominations, 23 Dove Awards and 15 Stellar Awards, but with the impressive stats of her latest album, Believe For It, the multi-award winning singer may have to consider making room for another trophy case.

Since the release of Believe For It, the album has garnered: Three Grammys wins, three Stellar Awards, three American Music Award nominations, two NAACP Image Award nominations and for several weeks, held the #1 spot on Billboard Gospel Music Charts. The current single, “Goodness of God,” has crossed the one million mark of weekly streams and is currently Top 10 on Billboard’s Hot Gospel Songs Chart’. The song continues to generate steam at gospel radio and has a new music video set to premiere this fall. Directed by Calvin Nowell of Cmon Creative, the “Goodness of God” video celebrates the legacy of Winans’ career and the importance of healthy generational connections.

The Gospel Music Association's recent announcements of the 2022 Dove Awards nominations, added five more nods to Winans' list which includes: Artist of the Year, Song of the Year, "Believe For It"; Inspirational Song of the Year, "I've Got Joy"; Contemporary Gospel Recorded Song of the Year, "Believe For It" (CeCe Winans, featuring Lauren Daigle) and Gospel Recorded Song of the Year, "Goodness of God." The winners will be announced on October 18th at Lipscomb University's Allen Arena in Nashville and will air exclusively on TBN, Friday, October 22nd at 8:00 p.m. ET -10:00 p.m. ET and will simulcast on SiriusXM The Message

Winans is now gearing up for a much anticipated national tour, the first in over a decade and gauging by the activity for online sales, fans are looking forward to the live experience. To ensure good seats for an up close and personal moment, the singer's longtime followers are not waiting to purchase their tickets. The "Believe For It Tour" sponsored by Compassion International and produced by Transparent Productions, kicks off on September 21 in Indianapolis, Indiana and wraps November 4 in St. Louis, Missouri - covering a total of 21 markets. For more details on the tour and tickets check out www.cecewinans.com.

###

Stay connected:

IG @cecewinans

FB @official.cece.winans

Twitter @cecewinans

Website: www.cecewinans.com

ABOUT CECE WINANS:

The best-selling and most-awarded female gospel artist of all time, CeCe Winans will be heading out on her first nationwide tour in over a decade with the Believe For It tour. With 15 Grammy Awards, 31 Grammy Nominations, 23 Dove Awards and 15 Stellar Awards, this will be a night of worship and songs you'll never forget. CeCe will perform many of her biggest songs from over her career as well as some of her more recent songs impacting the church like "Believe For It" and "Never Lost". This night will bring together church, community, and friends for the live, full-band experience that fans have been anticipating for over 10 years!

ABOUT TRANSPARENT PRODUCTIONS: For over two decades, Transparent Productions has been one of the largest producers of Christian concerts, tours, and festivals across the U.S. in churches, theaters, arenas, and amphitheaters. In 2022 the company will produce nearly 400 dates nationwide. Visit them at www.transparentproductions.com