PHIL WICKHAM & BRANDON LAKE'S "SUMMER WORSHIP NIGHTS" 2025 SEES RECORD-BREAKING ON-SALE FUELED BY UNPRECEDENTED DEMAND FROM FANS

Second Dallas Date Added on 7/27

Production Modified in Select Venues to Accommodate 360-Degree Seating

Nashville, Tenn. (March 27, 2025) — Following a record-breaking on-sale date on Monday, Mar. 24, "Summer Worship Nights" 2025 continues to see unprecedented demand from fans for the third consecutive installment of the popular co-headlining bill helmed by multi-GRAMMY® nominee Phil Wickham and five-time GRAMMY® winner Brandon Lake, who are both set to release new albums this year.

Making room for even more concertgoers, the chart-topping acts have added a second night in Dallas on July 27 and have also modified production in select cities to accommodate in-the-round seating. Venues in Cincinnati, Nashville, Austin, Dallas (night one) and Phoenix have already been adjusted to a 360-degree setup in order to increase capacity. In addition, most markets are offering an option to pair tickets and hotel accommodations via Ticketmaster Travel.

"I'm absolutely thrilled by the response to the 'Summer Worship Nights' tour already. It's such a gift to be hitting the road again with my good friend, Brandon Lake — what a joy to partner in leading people into the presence of God," Wickham shares. "I'm believing with all my heart that the Lord is going to move in powerful ways in every room we gather. There's nothing like seeing the Church come together — different stories, different backgrounds — but all singing under one banner, the banner of Jesus. Can't wait to worship with you all this summer!"

"I'm blown away by the response to the 'Summer Worship Nights' tour," Lake adds. "It's been insane to see how many of y'all are hungry to worship and encounter Jesus together. I'm so pumped to be hittin' the road again with my brother, Phil Wickham — what a gift to run with friends who carry the same heart for revival. I'm believin' for God to show up in a powerful way every single night. These aren't just concerts... They're gonna be holy moments, ya'll!"

Presented by leading promoter TPR., the 12-stop U.S. outing will begin July 17 in Pittsburgh and end Aug. 3 in Los Angeles. The well-known duo will then cap what is sure to be a successful run by taking "Summer Worship Nights" overseas for the first time this year, performing a collaborative set at London's Big Church Festival on Aug. 24. Emerging artist Josiah Queen will provide direct support across all North American "Summer Worship Nights" tour dates.
